

FAVORITE FOODS AND LIBATIONS OF PAST PRESIDENTIAL FAMILIES

Thanks in part to a generous donation the North Arlington Public Library will host Judith Krall Russo, food historian and tea expert, on the rescheduled date of:

SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 2010
AT 11:00AM

This program of Judith's is best described in her words...

"Put aside partisan political views and look at the lighter side of the presidential office. Learn about some of the favorite foods and beverages of past presidential families. Learn how the Presidents entertained at State dinners and how they entertained family and friends. Did you know that George Washington loved honey, and Martha had a great fondness for cake? A favorite beverage of President Garfield was tea; he even had his own recipe for an herb tea that included catnip. Thomas Jefferson never invited more than 12 guests for dinner. Come learn about other past presidential families and their favorite fare."

Refreshments will be served.

Everyone is welcome to attend; however due to the program's content the intended audience are those age 13 through adult. Registration is not required.

In the case of inclement weather it would be best to check the library's website or call ahead about a possible cancellation/reschedule.
